

Definition of Specialized Experience for Deputy for Programs and Project Management Positions

Experience comparable to the next lower grade in providing leadership in establishing and maintaining effective management processes and work environment conducive to effective integration of technical functions with the programs and project management business practices. Examples of technical functions include any or all of the following categories; general water resource development projects, vertical construction and associated infrastructure, and environmental restoration projects.

/B/

/S/ 19 March 1998

Approved

JOE N. BALLARD/DATE